Wise - Info 5960.081/.085: Typography and Communication (2.0 credit hours)

This course is intended to further your experience with the elements and principles of typography. Through the presentation of type history and some technologies we will study letterforms and how they become text. We will introduce design principles of hierarchy and emphasis which allow type and text to be more readable. Various readings, observations, discussion and exercises will help you develop a stronger appreciation for higher quality typography. You can then apply new skills to various documents that are required of you as a graduate student and young professional: resumes, proposals, reports, etc.
